

Bilingual/Francophone support worker - DIGBY

Part-time (21 hrs/week) contract role: 8 months with possibility of renewal.

Tri-County Women's Centre is seeking to hire a designated bilingual/francophone support worker. The designated bilingual/francophone support worker is responsible for providing bilingual/French language one-on-one support counselling to women, girls and their families in the Tri-County region, primarily based in Digby, and supporting the surrounding area (and your TCWC colleagues with French language matters) on an outreach basis.

This position is funded by an agreement between the Nova Scotia Status of Women Office and the Office of Acadian Affairs and Francophonie, under the Canada-Nova Scotia Agreement on Minority-Language Services to enhance the supports offered to French-speaking and bilingual women in our area.

The successful candidate will have:

- Strong communication skills in both English and French, with the ability to provide support services, programming and advocacy in both languages.
- Minimum education of college diploma in a related social science field (Human Services, Social Services, Mental Health Recovery Promotion) with at least 2 years related social science experience working within a feminist analysis. (Bachelor's degree preferred.)
- Registration with professional body, if applicable
- Experience with direct service delivery including supportive counseling and advocacy within an intersectional, culturally-sensitive feminist framework
- Working knowledge of partners within the local communities, especially Acadian and francophone partner organizations
- Successful completion of Criminal Record Check - Vulnerable Sector Screening & Child Abuse Registry Screening is required.

Additional responsibilities will include; client support work, program coordination, provide information, make referrals, administrative work, accompaniment and opportunities for professional development.

Working conditions:

- Must be fully capable of working in both English and French.
- Working out of the Digby office, with some travel to provide outreach services. Mileage is compensated.
- Must have reliable transportation.

Tri-County Women's Centre is an equitable employer and applicants are welcome to self-identify in their application. Preference will be given to French-Acadian applicants.

Application deadline: Friday August 23rd, 2024 - 4:00pm (Atlantic).

Only applications with cover letter and resume received by email at apply@tricitywomenscentre.org will be considered and only those chosen for an interview will be contacted.
